Rainbow Writer's Homework

As part of their new rainbow writing work at school, pupils will be bringing a prompt sheet back home with them each week. They need to think of ideas and discuss them with adults at home so that when they return to school, they will be more prepared for their writing in school.

Radio Interview !

Back on 5th March 2009, Mr Brown-ing and year 6 pupil, Oskar Lasocki, were invited to be guests at the official Guildhall banquet for the Queen's visit to Hull. They were introduced to Her Majesty before the meal. As part of their coverage for the Diamond Jubilee celebrations, BBC Radio Humberside have been interviewing people who have met the Queen. On Wednesday, Andy came to interview the two again.

Charlotte's Web!

E.B. White's famous book "Charlotte's Web" was brought to life on Monday by M&M Theatrical Productions as the four actors entertained us with their brilliant acting skills. All our pupils were entranced by the exploits of Wilbur the pig and his amazing spider friend, Charlotte. We have even booked the company for the 21st May 2013, when they will be performing "Oliver Twist" for us and staying to do a stagecraft workshop with some of our children.

New Teaching Appointment !

We are delighted to announce that we have appointed a new teacher to fill the post left by Mrs Hudson. Miss Katy Hatfield will be joining us in the Nursery class at the start of September.

School Crossing Patrol

We have been asked to inform parents and pupils that the School Crossing Patrol who operates at BEVERLEY RD/SCULCOATES LANE junction, will not be on duty until further notice...

Crafty Mondays at Fenchurch

Before Easter we had some extra craft sessions for our year 6 pupils. Fenchurch Street Children's Centre are now hosting more of these sessions for this age group of children from 3.30pm to 5pm on a Monday evening. The activities proved highly popular when they were held at school. If you would like further details, please phone Raveen Ghuman on 01482 331238.

Dinner Money Is Now Collected On Mondays!

May we remind you that dinner money will be collected on the first day of the school week. Children will need to bring their total dinner money for the forthcoming week. This can be in any combination. For Example: if you wanted your child to stay for dinners on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday they would just need to bring £3 on the Monday of that week. At the end of the week, letters will be sent out reminding parents if they still owe money. Dinner prices are £1 per day, unless children are eligible for free school meals.

Assembly & Exhibition Dates!

Our phase assembly and exhibition dates for this term are as follows: Please note there has been a slight change from last week's newsletter. The scheduled year 6 assembly has been cancelled and the phase 2/3 one altered. This is entirely down to the arrangements for year 6 SATs tests.
